Context: We have been learning all about super heroes. We have used talk for writing to recall our story, Supertato. The children have been talking about the characters and acting out the story, adding their own narrative. They have talked about what the character might say and what they might do.

LO:
-(Lit:W) Gives meaning to marks that they make, draw, write.
-(Lit:W/R:40-60) Can segment the sounds in simple words.
(Lit:W:40-60mths) Links sounds to letters, naming and sounding the letters of the alphabet.

Success Criteria:
I hear initial sounds in words.
I can segment and write a CVC words.
I can form my letters correctly.

Can you write words and a sentence to describe Supertato?

________________________  ______________________

________________________  ______________________

________________________  ______________________

________________________  ______________________

________________________  ______________________

________________________  ______________________

________________________  ______________________

________________________  ______________________